ANNUAL REPORT

2017-18

A LETTER FROM LEADERSHIP

Dear Northwestern,

It is with great excitement that we present to you the first ever Student Holdings Annual Report. This may be our first report, but it's hardly our first year. Prior to this past year, we were Northwestern Student Holdings, an experiential business education program within Northwestern University. From 2007 to 2017, Northwestern Student Holdings (NSH) provided over 250 student members (and more than 1,000 student employees) with learning experiences through the opportunities to launch and grow profitable, scalable businesses serving the Northwestern and greater Evanston communities. Our businesses ranged from a printed guidebook of Chicago's neighborhoods to summer storage for Northwestern students. Through its programs, NSH advanced Northwestern's strategy by providing students with experiential learning opportunities while enriching the overall undergraduate student experience.

In February 2017, we learned that our sponsoring department at the time would be unable to continue its support of NSH in the 2017-2018 academic year. After an exhaustive search, we were ultimately unsuccessful in finding another department to sponsor NSH.

With the University's blessing, we formulated a plan to transition out of Northwestern and continue operating as an independent legal entity. In May 2017, we established Student Holdings NFP, a not-for-profit corporation in the state of Illinois. Our mission is to continue to provide educational, hands-on business experiences to Northwestern undergraduates by providing them with opportunities to launch, operate, and grow businesses serving the Northwestern, Evanston and Chicago communities.

This month marks the conclusion of Student Holdings' first full year of independent operations. We are proud to report that Student Holdings picked up right where NSH left off. Over the past year, we continued operating three of our businesses: NU|Tutors (tutoring services), Ink Tank (apparel printing) and RezEssentials (refrigerators and dorm essentials). In October and February, we recruited our newest student leaders from the Class of 2021. Today, more than 40 Northwestern students are involved with Student Holdings' unique business learning programs.

In 2018, our first priority has been laying a strong foundation for Student Holdings to ensure its ability to provide these hands-on learning experiences to Northwestern students for years to come. In January, we elected our first board of directors and submitted our application for 501(c)(3) status to the IRS. We have focused on our initiatives to empower and grow the passionate student leaders who participate in our programs. We have also worked to grow our services by expanding our product offerings and extending our reach to serve new customers.

While Student Holdings now resides outside of the University, we remain steadfast in our commitment to serve the Northwestern community. We are beyond appreciative of The Garage at Northwestern University and their continued support of Student Holdings. In the coming year, we look forward to deepening our existing relationships within Northwestern University and forming new ones.

At the same time, we have also been building relationships beyond Evanston. This summer we will host events with our alumni in Chicago, New York City, and San Francisco to bring together the more than 250 students who have been impacted by Student Holdings and NSH since 2007. In addition, we recently agreed to join a new national association of student-run businesses as a founding member. We look forward to engaging with and supporting our peer organizations at other universities such as Cornell, the University of Pennsylvania, Marquette, and Loyola.

Looking ahead, we are already planning our upcoming recruitment campaign for Fall 2018. We are excited to share our passion and enthusiasm with the Northwestern Class of 2022 and teach them all about what Student Holdings has to offer. We are also eager to expand on our existing educational programs and the services we provide to our community. We are actively pursuing opportunities to add new student-run services to our portfolio. Just this month, our board set a goal of opening a retail storefront for our businesses by the end of 2020. This was a dream of NSH for many years, and we are excited to make it a reality as Student Holdings.

To our customers who have allowed us to serve you the past decade, to our key stakeholders who have offered our organization and members unwavering support, and to each of our student leaders who bring their passion and dedication to Student Holdings everyday, thank you.
